KELLY'S ARMY COMING.

An Enthusiastic Greeting for the Men at Neola, Ia.

CITIZENS ANXIOUS TO AID THEM.

Flags Flying from Every Farm House Along the Line of March, While Crowds at Every Cross Roads Express Heartiest Sympathy.

NEOLA, Ia., April 23.—Kelly and his industrial army ended their first day's march from Council Bluffs here at 5 o'clock last evening and immediately went into camp in a grove just east of the town. The entry into Neola was a triumphal march. Almost every man, woman and child of the 1,100 inhabitants went out to greet the army. Flags were borne, and the cheers were lusty as the 1,800 men tramped down the town's main street to the strains of two country bands. The stores and vacant buildings of this place were thrown wide open, and the weary men were offered all available shelter.

The start from Camp Weston was made at 8 o'clock. Hundreds of people had gone out from Council Bluffs and Omaha to see the beginning of the long overland march, and a dozen wagons, heavily laden with provisions, awaited the moving of the column. As soon as breakfast was over and blankets strapped the companies fell into line and in step with the energetic thumping of a bass drummer, tramped down the hill upon which the camp was situated, and the march to Washington was begun.

The day was a perfect one and rapid time was made along the smooth, well beaten roads. From every farm house flags were flying, and at every cross road lines of gaily decorated wagons and carriages awaited the coming of the army. The little town of Underwood was reached about noon, and a sumptuous repast was served by the enthusiastic villagers. When the meal was over and the impromptu speeches done the march was resumed amid the energetic cheering of the crowd that was gathered. On every hand the deepest sympathy for Kelly and his men was expressed, and farmers and townsmen were eager to supply the wants of the Commonwealers. Neola is with Kelly to a man, and the condemnation of the action of the railroads in refusing transportation is as violent here as at Council Bluffs and Omaha.

As an ironical expression of the feeling regarding the calling out of the Iowa militia the citizens here formed a company of little boys and girls to greet the advent of the army, the badges and banners of the infantile brigade bearing the inscription "Neola Militia." Throughout the day there was no scene of disturbance or disorder, and the plan of seizing a train has been abandoned. The railroads entering Council Bluffs will not, however, run trains in this vicinity until the army is well off their routes.

Today the Commonwealers are marching to Avoca, eighteen miles away, and if promises made are fulfilled 150 wagons will be provided for transportation. General Kelly said last night that whether the men ride or walk they will move steadily forward for Des Moines. There the army expects to capture a train for Chicago, and at Chicago the men believe they will be well provided with transportation to the east.

THE MEN FROM BOSTON.

Over Four Hundred Unemployed Following Fitzgerald to Washington.

BOSTON, April 23.—There were fully 25,000 people on Boston common yesterday to witness the departure of the Boston delegation of the unemployed to Washington. There was no disorder at any time, but when Morrison J. Swift mounted the improvised platform the crowd began to surge forward until the frail affair was broken to fragments. Swift then continued his speech from the band stand, which is generally forbidden to speakers. At the conclusion of his speech a letter addressed to President Cleveland was adopted by a mighty yea. It calls attention to the deplorable condition of the people, and intimates that harsh treatment of those representing the unemployed would surely meet with just retribution. The letter concludes:

"This is no time to prate about senatorial dignity. It is the time for those who make laws to listen to the commands of those who make them lawmakers. You can endeavor to have the people provided with proper food while in Washington. We who remain at home will await your action attentively."

The people who had come to see the army depart, however, were disappointed. The major portion of those who had been enrolled had been instructed to wait at Roxbury Crossing for General Fitzgerald. When Fitzgerald left for Dedham, the first stop, he was followed by only forty-five men, but at Roxbury Crossing there were 400 others waiting, who joined the line of march.

THE MARCH ON FREDERICK.

The Mayor Is Preparing a Frosty Reception for Coxey's Army.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., April 23.—After a three days' stop in this place the Coxey colonies have started for Frederick. There will be one stop at Boonesboro, making the camp at Frederick tomorrow. The start was made at 10 o'clock this morning. The Commonweal will march direct down the National pike after leaving Frederick. The road by the National pike will throw the burden of entertaining the army on Urbana, Clarksburg, Middletown and Gaithersburg, and relieve other towns that have been anxiously awaiting the coming of the Commonweal. It is possible that after reaching Rockville there will be a further change of route, the army going south through the little settlement of Potomac, near the Great Falls, and marching into Washington from the west by way of the conduit road.

Browne, in speaking of the proposed camp in the arsenal grounds, said that he had concluded the grounds around the foot of Washington monument would be more convenient and appropriate, and announced that he would telegraph Colonel Redstone to make a request for the grounds on the secretary of war.

Mayor Fleming, of Frederick, is preparing a frosty reception for the army. He has announced that no public meeting will be allowed unless in a hall, and that there shall be no parade on the street. Browne says that he would like to see the mayor stop a procession of American citizens with the American flag at its head.

The Smaller Armies.

BALTIMORE, April 23.—The northern, or Jones wing of the Coxey-Commonweal army, nineteen strong, in command of Division Marshal Clinton, marched into Orangeville, a small village a quarter of a mile from Baltimore, at 5 o'clock last evening with a great hurrah and went into camp. A colored man by the name of Nathan Diggs lives in the place, and he cheerfully gave the division the use of the specimen lawn, barn and wagon-shed, which was called Camp Diggs. When it became known that the men were coming in on the Philadelphia road great crowds of people flocked to Herring Run and cheered the men all the way into camp. Three recruits joined here last night, and efforts to recruit here will be active as long as they remain.

HARTFORD, April 23.—The Connecticut contribution to Coxey's is booked to start from Bristol tomorrow morning and expects to reach this city Wednesday or Thursday. Other detachments, it is hoped, will join here, and Leader George Sweetland will devise means to continue the journey to Washington.

WILMINGTON, O., April 23. — Colonel Galvin of Frye's industrial army, with 219 Commonwealers, is stranded here, the railway companies refusing to carry them further. The regiment is in camp at the fair grounds.

RICHMOND, Ind., April 23.—J. H. Swift, of Terre Haute, an advance man for the industrials, is here to raise recruits for Kelly's army. He expects to have 200 in two days.

THE DALTONS WERE NOT IN IT.

Officers Fired Upon a House in Which Were Innocent Persons.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 23.—The Associated Press correspondent at Arkansas City, Kan., who was sent to Oklahoma to secure the facts in the alleged encounter between the United States deputy marshals and the so called Dalton gang, reports that the stories of the wholesale killing were untrue, and that the Dalton gang were at no time in the fight. When the firing began the Daltons were three miles from the Miller house, on the ranch of Ed Daune. When the firing was heard the Daltons saddled their horses and escaped. From Monday afternoon until Wednesday morning the Miller house was closely watched by the officers, who fired some eighty shots into the house and received in return four shots from the Winchesters of the occupants, which consisted of the two Miller brothers, the wife of one of the brothers, a little girl and a German hired man. Wednesday morning Mrs. Miller, in company with the hired man, went to the barn and saddled two horses, upon which the Millers escaped. On returning to the house the German was shot through the heart. The little girl was shot through the shoulder.

Bold Marauders at Ganister, Pa.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., April 23.—Four masked men stole a handcar from a section house on the Pennsylvania railroad at this point and went to Ganister, a small town ten miles distant, Saturday night. There they broke into the postoffice, gagged Postmaster Daniel Donnelly, and forced him to open the safe at the point of a revolver. After pilfering the safe they tied Donnelly to a bedpost, robbed the express office, Howard Russ' general store, and one or two private residences, securing money orders, checks, notes and other articles of value to a considerable amount. Then they remounted the handcar and returned to this city, where all trace of them was lost.

Decision Against Northwestern Strikers.

ST. PAUL, April 23.—By a decision of Lawrence Maxwell, Jr., acting attorney general of the United States, strikers cannot detach passenger trains from a mail car without liability to punishment for interference with the mails. The effect of this opinion has had a noticeable effect on the strike leaders in this city and along the line of the road, which effect is further apparent in the fact that the road is now clear from this city to Minot, and trains on the Minnesota and Dakota divisions are being run as usual today. It is believed that the strike is practically over now, so far as those two states are concerned.

Mother and Daughter.

"My mother had an abcess from which she recovered after much suffering, but every fall she would have a bilious attack which would last two weeks. Last summer we induced her to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and this fall she only had a slight attack. Hood's Sarsaparilla has done her much good, I have also taken it with benefit, myself." MISS ROSE WAGNER, Depauville, N. Y.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills. Try a box.

What Will Do It?

MEDICAL writers claim that the successful remedy for nasal catarrh must be non-irritating, easy of application, and one that will reach the remote sores and ulcerated surfaces.

The history of the efforts to treat catarrh is proof positive that only one remedy has completely met these conditions, and that is Ely's Cream Balm. This safe and pleasant remedy has mastered catarrh as nothing else has ever done, and both physicians and patients freely concede this fact. Our druggists keep it.

THE WEEK IN CONGRESS.

Republican Senators Will Contest the Tariff Bill Inch by Inch.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The prospect is that the tariff debate in the senate will continue this week much on the same lines as have been observed since the agreement for the regulation of hours of debate was entered into, notwithstanding the arrangement that the reading of the bill by paragraphs should begin on Wednesday at 1 o'clock. The Republican senators are counting upon the continuance of this program for at least another week, and expect to go on with their general speeches just as they have been doing for the past three weeks. "General debate," said Senator Aldrich, in discussing the outlook, "will conclude Tuesday at 5 o'clock and will be resumed Wednesday at 1 o'clock."

Nine Republican senators will make manifest their disposition to contest every inch of ground at the very beginning of the discussion of the paragraph on Wednesday by attempting to have the provision of the first paragraph, providing that the new tariff shall go into effect on June 30, changed, and they will contend that the custom has always been to give at least six months notice in making a change of the tariff laws.

Appropriation bills will continue to occupy the attention of the house during the week after today, which, under the rules, is devoted to the consideration of business reported from the District of Columbia committee. Tomorrow the diplomatic and consular bill, which consumed the major portion of last week, will probably be finished, and on Wednesday the postoffice appointment bill, the consideration of which was interrupted by the departure of Chairman Henderson, of the postoffice committee, as one of the committee to attend the funeral of the late Senator Vance, will be resumed.

Steamer sunk, Four Drowned.

MONTEREY, Cal., April 23.—The Pacific Coast Steamship company's steamer Los Angeles, bound north from Newport, Cal., and way ports to San Francisco, ran on the rocks at Point Sur Lighthouse, thirty miles south of Monterey. The steamer sank within ten minutes, and the passengers and crew took to the boats. Three boatloads reached the shore, and two other boat loads and a raft containing other passengers and members of the crew were met and rescued by the steamer Eureka. It is learned that the captain, who had retired, had given orders to have the third mate call him when a certain number of revolutions of the wheel had occurred. The mate failed to do so and the steamer went upon the rocks. Four dead bodies have been recovered, and Captain H. D. Leland, of the Los Angeles, is reported to be in a critical condition.

Defaulter Lohmann Arrested in Canada.

BROOKLYN, April 23.—Inspector MacKellar, of the Brooklyn police, received a telegram from the police authorities of Toronto, Canada, to the effect that William D. Lohmann, the former cashier of the Brooklyn excise department, who has been missing since Jan. 27 last, had been arrested in that city. The inspector immediately telegraphed back to hold Lohmann, and that officers would be at once sent on to bring him back to this city. Lohmann left home to attend a convention of German singing societies in Philadelphia. He failed to return, and an examination of the accounts of the excise department showed that he was a defaulter to the extent of $19,400.

Pennsylvania's Heavy Fire Losses.

HARRISBURG, April 23.—The business of fire and marine insurance was very unprofitable in Pennsylvania last year. Had it not been for their interest earnings and accumulations of surplus Insurance Commissioner Luper says some of our best and most conservative companies would not have been able to stand the heavy drafts made upon them on account of fire losses. In 1893 the excess in losses over income was $1,847,272.91. Mr. Luper says the provisions of the act of 1870 prohibiting unincorporated associations from doing a fire business ought to be extended to cover all classes of insurance business.

Fatal Shooting Over "Crap."

CAMDEN, N. J., April 23.—John Nash, of 911 Kaigon avenue, was shot through the left eye and brain by Edward Willis, of Baxter street, this city. Nash will die, and Willis has been arrested. Both men are colored, and with a number of companions spent Saturday night in "shooting crap" in the 3d ward police station. About 5 o'clock yesterday morning Willis "went broke" and surrendered the stakes, amounting to $30, and started to escape. Nash, who was backing the game, objected, a fight ensued, and Willis drew a revolver and shot Nash.

GREAT COAL STRIKE.

Fully a Hundred and Twenty-five Thousand Men Out.

MINERS' OFFICIALS ENTHUSIASTIC.

President McBride Says Twenty-four Thousand Miners in Indiana Are Out—The Strike in Ohio and Western Pennsylvania About Complete.

COLUMBUS, O., April 23.—President John McBride, of the United Mine Workers, is busy comparing press dispatches and newspaper reports of the big strike with information at hand. His revised estimate shows that more men have struck in the competitive district and fewer in the outlying districts than anticipated, but the total number of men out remains about the same as Saturday—125,000.

In Illinois he states there are 24,000 out of 35,000 miners, idle; in Indiana, 6,000 out of about 8,000, and in West Virginia about 2,000 out of 9,000. Conventions are to be held in Illinois and West Virginia tomorrow, when efforts will be made to bring all the men into line. President McBride expects definite information by letter from nearly every district today.

From other sources the following figures as to the number of men out in other states is given: Pennsylvania, 34,200; Ohio, 26,650; Tennessee, 3,000; Iowa, 5,000; Colorado, 4,000; Kentucky, 2,000; Indian territory, 2,000; Alabama, 8,000; Missouri, 2,000.

There seems to be no doubt but the suspension in Ohio and western Pennsylvania is about complete. The organizers are most active in West Virginia and Illinois, National Secretary McBryde having gone to the latter place to address meetings. No reports have been received of any disturbances and none are expected, as a friendly feeling seems to prevail.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 23.—Here and adjoining regions the miners have all struck. At the headquarters of the Indiana miners in this city no refusals to strike are reported. The officials are enthusiastic and confident of success. The Indiana miners of all classes number 9,000, block coal miners and unorganized miners, 4,000. The block coal operators will work till May 1. At Washington, Ind., all the bituminous miners went out. Only three of the seven mines at Evansville struck. The miners at Booneville, Oakland City and Prisco, which employ the miners by the day, will not be affected by the order. The miners along the Air Line will strike.

NASHVILLE, April 23.—The American's special from Cunningham, Ala., states that 500 miners at Corona, Walker county, struck. The strikers will hold a public parade in Birmingham tomorrow. The free miners at the mines of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Railroad company, in this state, and at the Bonair mines, near Sparta, remained at work.

Another Louisiana Race War.

TALLULAH, La., April 23.—A race war is on in this section of Madison parish. Charles J. MacFarland, the manager of the Dancy place, had a difficulty with a negro tenant named Josh Hopkins, in which MacFarland was badly beaten. A posse started in pursuit of this negro, and MacFarland and a man named Boyce were fired upon from ambush, Boyce being instantly killed. MacFarland escaped. The negroes were located in the woods late Saturday night about a quarter of a mile from the killing, and Sheriff McClellan captured Harris Williams. Just as he got to the edge of the woods Williams made an effort to escape. The deputies fired on him and killed him. Thirteen negroes have been captured and lodged in jail.

Murdered by an Employe.

MOBILE, Ala., April 23.—Victor Ducournau, proprietor of a variety hall and saloon, was stabbed and instantly killed by an employe. The murderer's real name is believed to be A. B. Pickler. Pickler came here about three weeks ago from Dallas, Tex., bringing with him Lavine Chanler, who gave her home as Honey Grove, Tex. He secured employment for her and himself at the new variety hall. Yesterday the murderer attacked her with a knife, cutting her throat from ear to ear. Ducournau went to her assistance, with the above result. The woman is still living. Pickler escaped.

Three Incendiaries Lynched.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 23.—At Tuscumbia Saturday midnight Tom Black, John Willis and Tony Johnson, all negroes, were lynched. About a week ago these men were arrested for burning the barns of Claude King. A masked mob of 200 men went to the jail and overpowered the jailor, after which they took the three incendiaries and led them to the Tennessee river bridge, where ropes were placed about their necks and they were compelled to jump off. The fall broke their necks, and the bodies, after being filled with bullets, were left dangling.

TO RETURN TO HER HUSBAND

Prince and Princess Colonna Said to Have Settled Their Differences.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Princess Evelyne Gallarco Di Colonna, whose flight to the United States with her three children in February last, after an unsuccessful effort to obtain a separation from her husband in the French courts, attracted the attention of two continents, is booked to sail for Europe in June. She will be accompanied by her half brother, John W. Mackey, Jr., and it is possible that Mr. John W. Mackey, the bonanza king, will be one of the party.

Princess Colonna has reached an amicable understanding with her husband, and their domestic differences bid fair to be settled to their mutual satisfaction. Prince Colonna made the first advances through mutual friends, and appeared from all accounts to be thoroughly contrite. Mr. Mackey convinced himself of Colonna's sincerity, and then set about to reconcile the other members of his family.

PRINCE AND PRINCESS COLONNA.

John W. Mackay, Jr., it is said, opposed the reunion, and Princess Colonna herself was not at first disposed to listen to her husband's plea for forgiveness. The advice of her stepfather, however, at last prevailed, and for the sake of her three children has consented to resume the conjugal relationship with her husband.

Killed on the Eve of Her Wedding.

WILLIAMSPORT, April 23.—The Williamsport and North Branch railroad experienced its first serious accident Saturday, resulting in the instant death of Miss Miriam P. Welch, only daughter of Superintendent Benjamin G. Welch, and the probably fatal injury of L. P. McClenathan and Mrs. Joel F. Bailey, all of Hughesville, the latter being a sister of Superintendent Welch. The victims composed a pleasure party who were on their way to Halls to meet Superintendent Welch. Near Pennsdale, a village twelve miles east of this city, their train came to a standstill, and before a locomotive that was following to bring the party back could be signaled it crashed into the caboose. Mr. McClenathan and Miss Welch were to be married next Thursday.

The Anarchist Leader Caught.

LONDON, April 23.—Owing to revelations made by Francesco Polti, the anarchist recently arrested in Clerkenwell with a bomb in his possession, the police have arrested an Italian named Guiseppe Ferrara. Polti declared Ferrara occupied the same position among anarchists as that occupied by "No One" among the Fenians. The Press Association states that Ferrara controlled the collection and distribution of funds for the anarchist cause, and directed the manufacture and disposal of shells intended for use in England and abroad. Polti says that Ferrara paid money to him and that he (Polti) was promised by him £1 a week for life if he caused an explosion.

To Succeed Bishop O'Farrell.

TRENTON, April 23.—The diocesan consultors and irremovable pastors of the Trenton diocese met at Archbishop Corrigan's last week to recommend a successor to the late Bishop O'Farrell. It is reported in Catholic circles, although all information was refused at the cathedral, that the priests recommended Rev. B. J. Mulligan, of New Brunswick, as most worthy; Very Rev. Vicar General McFaul as most worthy, and Very Rev. Deal O'Grady, of New Brunswick, as worthy. These names will now be acted upon by the bishops of the New York province, who will send three names to Rome, from which one will be chosen for the vacant bishopric.

Two Killed at a Crossing.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 23. — John Phoenix and Samuel Young were killed Saturday night at the Hanover street crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad. They were inside the gates, waiting for a train to pass, when a runaway horse dashed into the gates, knocking them inward. Both men were struck by flying pieces of wood and thrown beneath the car wheels, being so terribly mangled that they died soon after. Phoenix leaves a widow and two children and Young a widow and four children.

GREEK EARTHQUAKES.

The Seismic Disturbances Cause Terrible Loss of Life.

MANY KILLED WHILE AT WORSHIP.

Reports So Far Received Show That Two Hundred and Fifty-eight Dead Bodies Have Been Taken from the Ruins, Which Will be Greatly Increased.

ATHENS, April 23. — The earthquake shocks that began in northern Greece at about 7:30 o'clock Friday night continued with more or less frequency until noon yesterday. All Saturday night the oscillation of the earth was noticeable, and the people of this city were in a state of semi-panic. Thousands of persons spent the whole night in the streets, dreading that should they enter their houses a more severe shock might bring the buildings down upon them. Telegraphic communication with many parts of the country is badly interrupted, and it is impossible to get news from some of the towns that must have been affected by the shocks. All the dispatches from the provinces add to the number of killed and injured, and the accounts of the damage to property are enlarged. In the villages of Malesina, Proskina and Martino, all in the province of Locris, 129 persons were killed.

The mayor of Larymni telegraphed that a heavy shock occurred at Proskina while vesper service was being held in the parish church, which was quite an old, but very substantial edifice. The walls of the church fell, burying all the worshipers in the ruins. The residents of the village were terror stricken at the violence of the seismic disturbance, and some little time elapsed before they recovered enough presence of mind to attempt to remove those covered with the debris of the church. Finally, however, a force was organized and the work of rescue begun. Hardly a person in the church escaped without injury. Thirty were taken out dead, amid the wailing and sobbing of their friends and relatives. Houses were thrown down in other parts of the village, and the money lost is great.

At Malasina houses tottered and fell as though built of card board. Hundreds of their occupants were caught before they had time to do more than attempt to escape. In this little village sixty persons were killed, some of the bodies being crushed out of all semblance of humanity. In some cases entire families were taken out of the ruins dead.

At Martino thirty-nine persons were killed. Here, as at Proskina, the parish church was the scene of the greatest number of fatalities, the walls of the structure being thrown from their foundations and toppled upon the worshipers. The others who lost their lives were killed by falling walls of houses.

It would be almost impossible to describe the scene in these villages. The people appear to be stunned by the severity of the blow that has fallen upon them, and many of them are completely apathetic. Others who have lost loved ones are nearly crazed with grief, and many heartrending scenes have been witnessed as the dead were removed from the masses of wreckage.

In the vicinity of Athens the fatalities were less numerous, but the damage to property is immense.

The Church of St. Elias, on Castella Hill, between the Pireus and Phaleram, has been racked beyond repair, and is tottering to its fall. The domes, walls and mosaics of the famous Eyzantine church of Daphne are very seriously injured.

The reports that have thus far been received show that very many of the deaths occurred in the churches. Last week was Passion week in the Greek church, and religious services were held every day and evening. The services were very largely attended, and several churches falling in a measure accounts for the large loss of life. A majority of the victims were women and children.

The government will be compelled to adopt extreme measures to help the poor in the districts affected. King George left last night for the scene of the fatalities.

Religious Riots in Florida.

PALATKA, Fla., April 23.—George Dunford, a Canadian, has been here several months representing the A. P. A., and has made remarks about the Catholics which have aroused a strong prejudice against him. Saturday night a fight occurred between H. C. Newbeck and Dunford, in which the latter was badly disfigured. Marshall Nix, recently from North Carolina, espoused the A. P. A. cause, and is alleged to have made serious remarks against the morality of Catholic priests. This aroused the indignation of the Catholics, and yesterday George E. Munder, C. J. Rogers and H. G. Newbeck sought Nix in his room and gave him a dreadful cowhiding. Nix was ordered to leave town, but stopped, and was again cowhided. Meantime a crowd of a hundred men seized Dunford and hurried him to the outskirts of the city. Sheriff Hagan sprang into a buggy and started after the crowd. The sheriff seized Dunford, put him in his buggy and drove him to the depot, where he left for Jacksonville, to sail from there for New York. Nix is under the protection of the sheriff.

A Notorious Burglar Killed.

NYACK, N. Y., April 23.—Hugo Willis, a notorious burglar, whose home has been at West Nyack for a few years past, was shot in the head while coming out of a window of the grocery store of David Smith, at West Nyack, early yesterday morning. He ran about 300 yards and then fell dead. Smith, who sleeps over the store, did the shooting. Willis has been in prison several times for burglary, and served a term in the New Jersey state prison for highway robbery. He leaves a wife and two children.

Near Fire at Ashland.

ASHLAND, Pa., April 23.—The St. Nicholas hotel, at this place, which is owned and operated by the Reading company, has been closed indefinitely yesterday morning, and is still raging fiercely. Preparations are being made to extinguish the fire by diverting a stream from its bed into the workings. This will cause a suspension of mining a month, during which time two thousand men and boys will be out of work.

Seized by Canadian Officers.

DETROIT, N. Y., April 23.—The fishing tug Grace, of this city, owned by Captain Helwig, was seized by the Canadian authorities off Fort Colborne, together with over 600 feet of nets. Five other Detroit tugs were sent back to American waters. The captain and crew were held with the boat, and the nets in Dunkirk were seized.

A Fleeing Bank Thief Killed.

LITTLE ROCK, April 23.—A Camden special from Calvary says: George Thomas, colored, attempted to rob the bank, was pursued by a posse, resisted arrest and was killed by J. H. Brewer, deputy sheriff. Dr. J. H. Hudson was making a deposit when the negro came up and reached for the money. Assistant Cashier Lounsberry discovered the attempt, and secured the money and drew his pistol. The negro ran and in the pursuit was killed.

Saved by His Dog.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., April 23.—An 8-year-old boy, while playing with his dog on the towpath fell into the water, which at this point is six or eight feet deep. He would have drowned had not the dog jumped in after him. The dog grasped him by the hair on his back, and was dragged to the shore.

Burned to Death in Her Home.

NASHVILLE, April 23.—In Macon county the residence of Z. Keene was totally destroyed by fire. One daughter perished in the flames and the father, mother, son and another daughter were badly burned.

Congressman Simpson's Illness.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Representative Jerry Simpson's illness took an unfavorable turn last evening, his condition being complicated by the return of an old kidney trouble.

A Revengeful Children Thief.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 23.—R. Johnson, a negro christian thief, was expelled from his church by the elders Friday night and ejected from the building by force. He swore he would turn the house over and kill "them niggers," and after trying to pry one of the corner posts out he gave up and went away. At an early hour Saturday morning the church burned down, and Johnson is accused of arson.

Six Cyclone Victims.

WEST PLAINS, Mo., April 23.—Late reports from Summerville, the scene of the recent cyclone make more serious the report sent out from here. The town itself was not injured very much but in the country the damage was great. Wm. Val Keel and three children, his hired girl and hired man, names Messenger, were killed. Five dwellings and many other buildings were blown away.

Bussard's Heavy Sentence.

LANCASTER, Pa., April 23.—Mary Bussard and Joseph Brownawager, convicted of burglary and shooting old Jacob Shaffer of Groffdale, were sentenced this morning. Bussard was sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000 and undergo an imprisonment of sixteen years in the Eastern penitentiary. Brownawager was fined $500 and sentenced to eleven years in the penitentiary.

Trenton Potters Will Compromise.

TRENTON, April 23.—The long lockout in the potteries owing to a cut in the piece price wage list, is nearing a settlement on the basis of a day wage system. Conferences are being held between the men and the employers, and two potteries have adopted the new scheme with satisfactory results. Some 3,000 men are concerned in this lockout.

Theodore Wice Again in Trouble.

Theodore Wice, formerly of Port Jervis, who, some time ago, was arrested on complaint of Emil Sicre & Sons, wholesale liquor dealers, of New York, for whom he was a salesman, is again in trouble, having been arrested, Friday, by the same firm on a similar charge, that of collecting money and failing to turn it in to the firm. Wice has been earning about $65 per week, but apparently could not make ends meet with that sum.

Good News, If True.

The Wantage Recorder says: "It is rumored that increased facilities for passenger travel are to be given the people along the line of the N. Y., S. and W. R. R. soon. June 1st a fast train is expected to run from Wilkesbarre to New York city, and a late morning train to run from Middletown to Two Bridges to connect with it. We hope it will make its appearance and get enough patronage to sustain it."

LOST!

The Life Histories of Some of the Great.

"Gone are the Glories, Gone, Lost are the Baton and Plume."

AMERICA'S GREATEST MEN AND WOMEN.

These are the quaint and sad verses written by one long resident of some town in Florida and since claimed to have been, not what he seemed, but really Marshal Ney, the great general, supposed to have been slain after the downfall of Napoleon. It is asserted that he fled to America, and concealing his identity, lived and died under an assumed name. He had a grand presence and was evidently very different than what he wished to appear. He never regretted lost fame and fame, and so came the pathetic words which he made into a little song:

"Gone are the Glories, Gone, Lost are the Baton and Plume."

AMERICA'S GREATEST MEN AND WOMEN.

Fame Has Better Fortune Now.

Gone are no glories, lost is nothing which corresponds to the baton and plume of living Americans of to-day, because even the the face, as well as the story of every well-known living American man or woman, is made prominent in the great work.

"America's Greatest Men and Women."

In this remarkable production, just offered to its readers by THE ARGUS and MERCURY, appears a full page photograph of every prominent man or woman of to-day, accompanied by a simple, unbiased but graphic story of the life of the person whose photograph appears above. It is something never before attempted in the history of publication. It is as novel as it is original, and is a work of extraordinary value to every one.

WHAT IT IS WORTH!

AMERICA'S GREATEST MEN AND WOMEN.

Think of what such a work as this must be. Where could you so interest yourself in anything as to get a copy of it and study the features of the men and women who are doing great things about us, just now, and who are affecting the drift of the country's efforts, and who are affecting, in a way, the welfare of almost every individual? It is remarkable thing. It is a strikingly original and fascinating work. What else of any sort or character, could be compared with it in fascinativeness, absolute convenience for reference or for information in a general way?

This is the work which the ARGUS and MERCURY has secured for its readers, and offers it to them upon such terms that no one need go without it. It is more interesting than a novel, it is something that should be read by the young and old alike, it is something which should be on every center table or in every library, and it may be had in this way:

You Can Get This Work Only Through the Daily Argus and Mercury.

HERE ARE the TERMS.

IN EVERY ISSUE OF THE ARGUS AND MERCURY will appear a numbered coupon. Cut this coupon out and bring or forward it, together with TEN CENTS, to the Coupon Department of the ARGUS and MERCURY and there will be delivered or mailed to you one number of the series as above. The remaining parts can be obtained as issued, one each week, by the readers of the ARGUS and MERCURY under the same conditions.

A Double Murderer Captured.

PINEVILLE, Ky., April 23.—The man Howard Nolan, captured at Vancouver, Wash., and said to be wanted at this place for murder, is thought to be John H. Nolan, of Harlan county, who killed two men near Harlan court house about three years ago, and who was arrested, but later on jumped his bond. Nolan belongs to a prominent family in Harlan county, and he quite a young man.

Short $14,000 on His Accounts.

TRENTON, April 21.—Ex-Judge Lanning, as special master, has filed a report showing E. P. Church, assignee of the Trenton Woolen company, to be short $14,000, of which amount $8,000 is due the First National bank. Trenton. Church was until recently a prominent local official of South Orange.

Destitution in Colorado.

DENVER, April 23.—The committee appointed by the county commissioners to investigate the reports of suffering among the poor settlers in the eastern part of the state have returned. By reason of the utter failure of last year's crops the ranchers have suffered greatly during the winter because of their inability to secure fuel and other necessaries. A majority of these people are Danes and Russians, and have gone through the winter using buffalo chips for fuel and with almost nothing to eat.

Death from Hydrophobia.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 23.—Two years ago Fred Hamm, a well known young man of Cuero, was bitten by a rabid dog. The wound healed nicely, and had been almost forgotten until a few days ago, when he began to show symptoms of hydrophobia. He grew worse rapidly, and was soon raving and snapping at those around him. He died yesterday.

Eloped with the Handsome Preacher.

GUTHRIE, O. T., April 23.—Edwin C. Witherell, rector of the Episcopal church at Stillwater, has eloped with Mrs. Anna Stevens. He leaves penniless his wife and babe, who are now at the home of Bishop Brooke in this city. Mrs. Stevens deserts a kind husband. It is thought that she went to Kansas City. Witherell is about 27 years old, and handsome.

Row Among Railroad Stockholders.

TOLEDO, O., April 20.—The second day's session of the shareholders of the Toledo, Ann Arbor and North Michigan railroad was characterized by disgraceful brawls, which finally ended in a personal conflict, after which the Lackawanna faction left the room, elected their board of directors, while the Aster interests adjourned their meeting.

Italian Street Cleaners on Strike.

PHILADELPHIA, April 23.—Three thousand Italian street cleaners went on strike at midnight. The trouble arose from a demand for an increase of wages. The men have been working ten hours a day at the rate of ten cents per hour, and they demand the same hours for work and fifteen cents an hour pay.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

W. B. Daniels, ex-governor of Idaho, died at Tacoma, Wash., aged 70.

It is officially announced that there is no danger of a strike on the Northern Pacific railroad.

At Palmyra, Neb., Father Corbett ignored the court's injunction restraining him from conducting church service, and Bishop Bonacum will press the case.

Dr. Jess Nattel and Walter Bragg, son of the late interstate commerce commissioner, quarreled at a public meeting in Montgomery, Ala. Subsequently they fought a duel and Bragg was killed.

General Slocum's Will.

BROOKLYN, April 21.—The will of the late General Henry W. Slocum has been filed for probate in the surrogate's court. There was no schedule of the amount of property, but it is estimated that he left upwards of $1,000,000. He makes some charitable bequests, and first directs the payment of $1,000 to the Children's Aid society and Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. His swords, private letters and papers are bequeathed to his son, Henry W. Slocum, Jr.

DEATH BY CHLOROFORM

A Young Woman of Port Jervis Dies as a Result of the Careless Use of the Anesthetic.

We are indebted to the Port Jervis Gazette for the following account of the sad death of a young woman in that village, as a result of the careless use of chloroform:

Sunday morning, about 10:30 o'clock, Miss Henrietta Gertrude Wehinger, the eighteen-year-old daughter of Fred. Wehinger, who with whom boarder of East Main street, Port Jervis, was found dead in bed, by her elder sister, Helena. The latter went to her room to call her to go to church with her and found her with a sponge and an ounce vial of chloroform, half empty. The bottle was under her pillow and the sponge saturated with the anesthetic was at her exterior.

Earlier in the morning another sister asked Gertrude to get up. She said she did not want to arise as she felt badly. That was the last seen of her alive. Dr. Swartwout was subpoenaed, but life was extinct.

A post-mortem examination was held by Drs. Swartwout and Van Etten, who found nothing was wrong with the girl, and that death was caused by the inhalation of chloroform. There is no theory of suicide in the matter. Her sister had previously used the drug in a doctor's prescription for headache and she, it is believed, had the drug purchased the day before by Mr. Wehinger's hired man for the same purpose and was ignorant of the dangers attending its use.

Miss Wehinger was a bright girl and would have graduated from the Port Jervis Academy this year. She was at school, Friday, in good health.

The affair was quite a shock to the community when first announced, yesterday, as the church bells were ringing. Miss Wehinger was much thought of by her school companions.

FISH BY THE WAGON LOAD.

Caught with Gunpowl Hooks Below the Deposit Dam.

The Walton Reporter says that thousands of fish are being caught in the West Branch of the Delaware River, just below the spillway of the dam at Deposit, where they congregate on their way up the stream on account of their inability to pass through the fishway of the dam. The fish are caught with grapnel hooks, which are let down at hap-hazard, and when pulled up usually have one or more fish fast to them. Wagon loads of fish have been taken there this spring, which have been sold for two cents a pound.

A Hotel for Chicken Coop.

E. V. H. Gardiner has invented a chicken coop that will earn for him one penny for every chicken hatched. It is supposed to be a critical child is a matter for the top, which closes the open front opposite to the point of the compass from which the wind is blowing. A patent has been applied for, and Mr. Gardiner will put the coop on the market. A sample is on exhibition at Brock & Clark's.

Gave Three to His Fingers.

This afternoon, while Abram Jodore was at work, on the printing machine, at Sweetnough's cash and wheel factory, his hand came in contact with the knives, and the three first fingers of his right hand were completely severed above the second joint.

He was taken to Thrall Hospital, where his wounds were dressed.

Sick-Headache Cured.

The three remaining bob-tail cars were sold at auction, Saturday. The purchasers were J. H. Barton, C. M. Weathersbee and H. W. Gray. The prices ranged from $12.50 to $18.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Oscar H. Price.

Ella June Coleman, wife of Oscar H. Price, died at 8:45 Sunday morning, after a long and painful illness. She was a daughter of the late Theodore P. Coleman and Mary E. Coleman, of this city. Mrs. Price was born in Middletown, March 23d, 1863. Mr. and Mrs. Price were married eleven years ago in Binghamton, N. Y. They have no children. The greater part of their married life was spent in New York city.

Besides her mother, Mrs. Price is survived by three sisters and two brothers: T. W. Coleman and Mrs. C. M. Benjamin, of Brooklyn; Mrs. D. M. Hudson, of Boston, and Mrs. Wm. D. Bevan and William B. Coleman, of this city.

The funeral, which will be private, will be held from her late residence, at East avenue, at 2:30 p. m. to-morrow afternoon. Friends and acquaintances desiring to see the remains may do so from 10 to 11 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Catherine Ellen Wyllie.

Mrs. Katherine Ellen Wyllie, widow of the late John S. Wyllie and mother of Charles L. Wyllie, of Poughkeepsie, died Saturday in New Haven, Conn., aged seventy-five years.

The deceased was born near Paterson, N. J., and went to New Haven for most years. She was a member of a Congregational Church there. She is survived by three sons, William O., of Vineland, N. J.; George M., of San Antonio, Texas, and Charles L.

The remains will be brought to this city on the Erie, at 3:10, this afternoon, at 3 the funeral will take place at 10 o'clock, to-morrow morning, from the residence of Charles L. Wyllie.

Mr. Harvey Bisbrouck died of heart disease in Newburgh at 4 a. m., yesterday, aged about fifty years. He had suffered from heart trouble for the past two years and particularly the last few months.

Mr. Bisbrouck was born in Greenfield, Ulster county. He came to Middletown about twenty years ago and engaged in the blue stone business and resided here until about four years ago, when he removed to Newburgh.

He was married about twenty-five years ago to Sarah Tuttle, who with one daughter, Estelle, survives him. Another daughter, Nora Ella, wife of Mr. J. L. Sweeny, of this city, died Dec. 21, 1902. There were other children who died in infancy.

Mr. Bisbrouck was a member of the Bloomville lodge of Odd Fellows and of Gen. Lyon Post, of this city.

After a funeral service at his late residence in Newburgh, the body will be taken on O. and W. train 1 to Bloomville and from there to Greenfield by hearse, where the burial will take place. Gen. Lyon Post will accompany the remains.

OBITUARY NOTES.

—Miss Sarah E. Coleman died, yesterday, at her home on Mill street, of pneumonia, aged fifty-seven years. She is survived by one brother, Wm. A. Coleman, of Painesville, Ohio.

—Mr. John Milliken, of Walden, died, yesterday, at the State hospital in this city, aged sixty-three years. Deceased was a well known blacksmith, and conducted a shop in this city many years ago.

THE ELECTRIC CARS HERE.

Crowds Watch the Unloading—They are Handsome Outside and Elegantly Finished Inside.

Three of the Middletown-Goshen Traction Company's car bodies arrived on the Erie, Saturday evening. Two of them were loaded on trucks and taken to the power house yesterday morning. The unloading was watched by a large crowd with as much interest as they would have the unloading of Barnum's show.

The cars are very handsome. They are painted white with gold striping, on the outside and the words "Middletown-Goshen Traction Co." is painted on each side. The numbers of the cars are thirteen, fourteen and fifteen.

The interior is finished in cherry, with upholstered rattan reversible seats. The cars are upholstered in White. The upholstering can be removed, leaving rattan seats on opening the car. There will be two motors electric power equipment lodged on each car, eight on the cars and one on each platform. The platforms are broad and there are double doors on each end. The windows are larger than usual, being thirty-six inches wide and have patent shades.

It will require about ten days to get the car bodies on the trucks and complete the fitting of the fenders and the adjustment of the motors. By that time the dynamos will be here and placed in position and the company will be ready to run its cars to Middletown, but not as they had hoped to Monday Park and Goshen.

JUSTICE'S COURT JUDGMENT AFFIRMED.

The Erie Must Pay Damages for a Colt Injured by Running Into a Barbed Wire Fence

Judge Beattie has just filed an opinion affirming the judgment rendered by Justice John Wiggins, in October last, against the Erie Railroad Co., for $65 and costs, for injuries to a colt belonging to James and Alfred Babcock, of Circleville.

The colt having escaped upon the tracks of the Crawford Branch, through a defective fence, was frightened by a train into a barbed wire fence near Crawford Junction, and was severely injured. The company, claiming that it could not be held in damages for injuries inflicted upon the colt by itself through fright, appealed to the county court, but Judge Beattie holds with the Justice that the company must pay.

It is an interesting fact, that although Justice Wiggins has been in service as a justice more than a quarter of a century, not a decision of his has ever been reversed on appeal.

John C. R. Taylor was attorney for the Babcocks; the Erie Co. was represented by W. A. Parshall, of Port Jervis.

SEVENTEEN-YEAR LOCUSTS.

Came Out of the Ground by Thousands at Nyack, Yesterday.

The seventeen-year locusts appeared above ground, yesterday, at Nyack, coming up through holes which looked as though made with a cane, and varying from one to three feet in depth. At sunset they again retired into their holes. If the weather is warm they will be able to climb this week, and then the destruction of young foliage will begin. Most of the crabs which came out yesterday were lively. They are precisely like those which appeared in [illegible]. The last have been stationed in perfectly formed clay cells, similar to wasps' nests. The average depth at which they are found is one foot, showing that they have traveled one or two feet toward the surface within two weeks.

A Telephone Entertainment.

The subscribers of the Hudson River Telephone Co., in Newburgh, were given a treat at the Palatine, Friday night. Twenty receivers were connected on a wire, and that number of people could listen at one time. They were entertained by a concert in Albany, banjo and harmonica solos in Peekskill, and by readings in Boston, Washington, Pittsburg and Chicago. The Pittsburg operator read a poem written by one of Cleary's many who had been left behind, entitled "Left Over."

The Evolution

Of medicine agents is gradually relegating the old time herbs, pills, draughts and vegetable extracts to the rear and bringing into general use the pleasant and effective liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs. Erie Reducing Its Force.

Twenty firemen on the Delaware division of the Erie were discharged, Saturday, and six engineers were put back to firing. The freight business of the road is increasing, but longer and heavier trains are being run.

North End Mission Services.

The North End mission services were held Sunday afternoon, in Nicholson's Hall. Rev. John Cochran presided at 3 o'clock, and conducted a short testimony service. The meetings in connection with this mission will be held in this hall during the year.

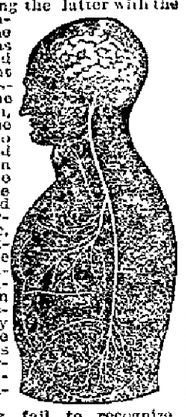
The Human Electrical Forces!

How They Control the Organs of the Body.

The electrical force of the human body, as the nerve fluid may be termed, is an especially attractive department of science, as it exerts so marked an influence on the health of the organs of the body. Nerve force is produced by the brain and conveyed by means of the nerves to the various organs of the body, thus supplying the latter with the vitality necessary to ensure their health. The pneumogastric nerve, as shown here, may be said to be the most important of the entire nerve system, as it supplies the heart lungs, stomach, bowels, etc., with the nerve force necessary to keep them active and healthy. As will be seen by the cut the long nerve descending from the base of the brain and terminating in the bowels is the pneumogastric, while the numerous little branches supply the heart, lungs and stomach with necessary vitality. When the brain becomes in any way disordered by irritability or exhaustion, the nerve force which it supplies is lessened, and the organs receiving the diminished supply are consequently weakened.



Physicians generally fail to recognize the importance of this fact, but treat the organs affected instead of the cause of the trouble. The most specialty, Franklin Miles, M. D., L.L.B., has given the greater part of his life to the study of this subject, and the principal discoveries concerning it are due to his efforts.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, the unrivaled brain and nerve food, is prepared on the principle that all nervous and many other ailments originate from disorders of the nerve centers. Its wonderful success in curing these disorders is testified to by thousands in every part of the land.

Restorative Nervine cures sleeplessness, nervous prostration, dizziness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is free from opiates or dangerous drugs. It is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid.

Medical Etiquette.

Mr. Ashurst, a medical man at Pendleton, Lancashire, believing himself to have been treated by a brother practitioner named Anderton, at New Mills, in a manner contrary to professional etiquette, endeavored to relieve his feelings by dispatching to his rival a telegram in the words, "Your conduct is abominable, and I shall not fail to resent it." This was an attack that Mr. Anderton was not disposed to put up with, for telegrams are necessarily seen by more eyes than one, and a charge of "abominable conduct" is apt to set village tongues wagging. So he called on the libeller for an apology, and this satisfaction not being forthcoming he brought an action of libel, which was tried at Manchester.

The original quarrel was, it appeared, about a patient who, being dissatisfied with Mr. Ashurst, called in Mr. Anderton, who ought, it was alleged, to have notified the fact to his dismissed predecessor. But Mr. Justice Day declared that he had no sympathy with what he called "violating the right which doctors claim of a monopoly to kill," and he added, "I know doctors claim a right not to be interferred with, but the public have as much right to change their doctors as they have to change their bakers." For all that, the judge stigmatized the action as "a most trumpery one," and the jury, having found a verdict for the plaintiff, with a farthing damages, left each party to pay his own costs.—London News.

Electrodes In Boilers.

Some additional evidence is reported in the foreign journals of the success of the method announced awhile ago for preserving steam boilers against pitting and general corrosion. This is accomplished by fixing electrodes in the boilers and sending periodically currents of electricity through them, under definite conditions, adjusted and controlled by automatic action. When the current is passing from the anodes suspended in the boiler to the shell and tubes, and oxygen on the anodes. Then, by means of the depolarizing apparatus, the action is changed, most of this hydrogen and oxygen recombining, with the result that, during the first period, the hydrogen performs two distinct functions—first, it disintegrates mechanically, by its volume, the scale formed on the shell and tubes, and, second, some of the hydrogen combining chemically with the oxygen of the oxide of iron on the shell and tubes reduces this oxide to metallic iron, thus doing away with the oxidation of the boiler without wearing away the metal. The secondary action, in a word, is to facilitate the disintegration of the scale, hasten the mechanical action of the hydrogen in bursting it off and prevent polarization of the shell and tubes—oxidation, it is well known, not being able to take place in the presence of hydrogen gas.

A Clever Device.

The proprietor of a brewery began the construction of a new cellar at a late period of the year; but, to his great annoyance, very little progress was made with the excavations, notwithstanding the large number of workmen employed. All at once, however, a spirit of wild enthusiasm seemed to come over the men, and they now worked with unflagging industry from the first streak of dawn till late in the evening. When the ground had been excavated to a sufficient depth, they had almost to be prevented by main force from penetrating still deeper into the soil, and they departed with sadness from the scene of their activity.

The brewer rubbed his hands with delight. What was the solution of the riddle? He had placed in an old earthenware pot, corroded with salt, a strip of parchment, on which he had written the following words in an antiquated hand: "Moche money lyeth here below. Whosoever findeth ytt maye kepe ytt." He then covered the vessel with a weatherworn piece of slate and buried it in a spot where the workmen would find it the next day.—Illustrites Sonntagsblatt.

Human Hair Traffic.

Eight cars loaded with human hair arrived in Paris recently, consigned to dealers in that merchandise. The hair came from India and China, whence thousands of pounds are annually sent to England and France. This traffic, a foreign medical journal says, is the cause of the introduction of many diseases to Europe. The hair is cut from persons after death in China, and although it is disinfected upon arrival in France it often carries the germs of disease. Asiatic hair, owing in part to its coarseness, can be purchased cheaply, it selling often as low as a franc a kilogram. The hair of Europeans, however, averages about 100 francs for the same amount.—New York Tribune.

An Amusing Mistake.

"A man entered our store recently," said a bookkeeper the other day, "and made a rather amusing blunder. I was sitting behind my desk, writing, when an elderly, well dressed man entered and asked to see Mr. Mallett.

"I told him there was nobody of that name in the store, but he did not seem satisfied, for he said: 'Why, that is strange. I was in here only two days ago and talked to him.' From the description he gave me I found that he meant one of our clerks, and I said: 'Oh, you mean Mr. Hammer, don't you?' 'Yes,' he said, 'I must have got the names hammer and mallet mixed up.'"—Philadelphia Call.

Novel Real Estate Boom.

A cabinet picture land was recently raised in Bohemia by a cute native, relying on the old time countryman's superstition. He colored an old image of Buddha with Parisian paint and set it up on his property announcing far and wide the latest local mining image. Pilgrims flocked to the spot, were struck with wonder, and were built houses sprang up, and the land owner made his fortune.—Exchange.

River Worship.

There appears to be more than one case of river worship, and there are supposed to be numerous cases of the kind in Africa. In the Ashantee country there is the Chamascian river, or Rio San Juan, called by the negroes Bossumpra, which they worship as a god, as the word Bossum signifies. In the west of our own country the Dakotas are said to worship a god of the waters under the name of Unktahe. There is the well known worship of the holy Ganges in India in the form of Ganga, a goddess. Of the great rivers of India none can compare in sanctity with the Ganges or Mother Ganga, as she is affectionately called by devout Hindoos. From her source in the Himalayas to her mouth in the bay of Bengal, every foot of her course is holy ground, and many of the other sacred rivers of India borrow their sanctity from a supposed underground connection with her waters. Ganga herself is described as the daughter of the Himalayas, who is persuaded after infinite solicitation to shed her purifying stream upon the earth.

At the present day, the six years' pilgrimage from the source to the mouth and back again is performed by many. To bathe in the Ganges, especially at great stated festivals, will wash away the stain of sin, and those who have thus purified themselves carry back bottles of the sacred water to their less favored relatives. To exclaim "Ganga! Ganga!" at the distance of 100 leagues will atone for sins committed during three previous lives. In British courts of justice in India, the water of the Ganges is used for administering oaths to Hindoos. The tribes of Neilgherry hills worship rivers under the name of Gangamma. In fact, the divinity of water is recognized by all the peoples of India.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Shut Your Mouth.

"Shut Your Mouth" is the curious title of a curious little book written in a hand that looks like copper plate, by the Indian traveler and painter, George Catlin. In the printed text it many years ago had a large circulation in England, but is long since out of print. This manugraph copy is unique. The writer, when among the Indians, was impressed by their knowledge of the laws of health and medical skill. This was long before civilization had introduced any of its practices. This little book is based on some of these observances which he introduced and practiced in his own family.

Indian children, he says, from their tenderest years are more carefully trained in certain respects by their mothers than the children of the most civilized peoples. The moment the youngest baby ceases nursing its lips are closed by its mother. If the baby does not keep them closed, she uses mechanical means rigidly and even cruelly. When the baby is put to sleep, it is strapped onto a board, its head slightly raised and its chin lowered, which tends to keep the mouth shut. The result is that when the teeth are forming and making their first appearance they meet and continually feel one another. Thus they take their relative positions and that healthful and pleasing regularity that gives to the American Indian, as a race, the most manly and beautiful mouths in the world.—New York Evening Sun.

Mars and the Earth.

Sir Robert Ball does not fail in his faculty for apt and convincing illustration. Lecturing at Dover on "What We Know of Other Worlds," he said that one of the most ordinary questions he was asked was, Did he think "those other worlds" were inhabited; had they real men, women and children like ours? He could only reply that he really did not know, and there was no possible means of finding out.

There had been some talk of our attempting to signal to Mars, and to establish communication with any living beings who might be existing there. To do this we should want a flag 300 miles long and 150 miles broad—about the size of Ireland. When we had found a pole for such a flag and a means of waving it, then should some astronomer on that planet chance to be looking at us while the flag was waving he might possibly see a little speck going to and fro on our earth, and might think we were up to something down here. The probabilities are all against there being intelligent life in Mars and here on the earth at the same time. In conclusion, Sir Robert Ball declared that the area of the heavens known to us is only like a dewdrop before the vast Atlantic ocean of the unknown, and the mind of man writhes as it tries to realize the extent of sidereal space.—Toronto Empire.

Adulterated Japanese Silk.

Buyers of Japanese raw silk should be on the watch for a trick which is now being revived. A number of complaints have been made by manufacturers of late. The adulteration of the raw silk is accomplished by impregnating it with a solution of salt or sugar, whereby 2 per cent or more in weight is gained, the sugar charge being difficult to discover. In dyeing such silk loses its gloss. In view of the fact that the United States is the best customer of Japan, it is short sightedness on her part to attempt such tricks. Japan exported in the season of 1892-3 27,441 bales of silk to the United States and 19,374 to Europe, of the latter 16,482 being shipped to Lyons.—Retailer and Jobber.

Lake Erie's Bad Reputation.

Lake Erie has a bad reputation in two regards. Being so shallow, she gets into a rage very quickly, and she seldom gives up her dead. The schooner Finney was lost more than two years ago on that same treacherous north shore, a shore of honeycombed rocks, shoals and engulfing sands, and there is no word of Captain Riordan or his crew. The list is long of the vessels seen last on that lee shore that are still on the unreported list.—Buffalo Express.

SHOTS HERE AND THERE.

AN "ARGUS" MAN OFF DUTY AIMS AT SEVERAL SUBJECTS.

The Snake Season in New Jersey—Opened Auspiciously by the Slaughter of an Anaconda Near Allendale—The Big Snake that is Said to Have Once Lived in Middletown.

The snake season seems to open auspiciously in New Jersey. Only one story has as yet found its way into the papers, but that is a robust one and gives me hope that the snake liars of our sister State will keep up to the high standard of recent years. The story with which the season opens is of the killing, on the road near Allendale, of an anaconda, six feet, seven inches long, and which weighed fifteen pounds. The slayer of the reptile is James H. Hagen, who is constructing a telephone line between Paterson and Tuxedo, to connect the systems of the New York and New Jersey and Hudson River Telephone Companies. He was driving to Paterson from Suffern, Friday evening, and when near Allendale came to a piece of road that was in poor condition and brought his horse to slow trot. A short distance ahead he saw what he thought was a rail across the road. It wasn't a rail, however, but a huge snake basking in the sun.

What happened afterwards is best told in the language of the original chronicler of the tale "The reptile must have been in a partly torpid condition. It did not stir at the noise of the approaching vehicle. When the front wheels passed over it Mr. Hagan felt a jolt, and the next instant he was startled by a commotion in the rear of the wagon, and turning round saw dust rising and something beating the roadway. He saw a huge snake coiling itself about the wheel and jumping out he picked up a large stone and hurled it at the reptile. He crushed its head and continued beating it until it lay almost lifeless."

As anacondas do not grow in Jersey and as all the experts on snakes who have seen the body of this reptile are agreed that it is an anaconda the assumption that it escaped from captivity somewhere is not unreasonable. And that reminds me that a few years ago Middletown harbored, for at least one season, a snake that got away from a circus that exhibited on the Pleasure Grounds. I don't claim to have ever seen the reptile myself, but I talked with several persons who averred that they had seen it. According to their story it made its home in the dense growth of bushes and weeds which then grew at one end of the grounds, and was often seen basking in the sun on the track in the vicinity of the miniature jungle in which it lived. Several men and boys spent a good deal of time watching for the snake in the hope of getting a shot at it, but it never showed itself when any one was around with a gun,—an illustration of the wisdom of a serpent that is worth noting. None of those who thirsted for the blood of this snake had the nerve to beat the jungle in which it was believed to live and so its life was spared. The rigors of our winter probably proved too severe for it, for although watch was kept for it nothing was seen of the snake during the following summer.

The stories of those who claimed to have seen the big snake were confirmed a year or two afterwards when another circus exhibited on the Pleasure Grounds, and one of the employes told several Middletowners of a big snake that got away while they were loading up the contents of a side show connected with the circus that had exhibited in this city. The man told quite a graphic story of an unsuccessful snake hunt by night on the Pleasure Grounds for the missing reptile. The search had to be abandoned when the time for leaving town arrived. The snake was not venomous, and the circus people hunted for it not because they thought Middletown would not care to have such an addition to its population, but because the snake represented quite a sum of money, and was especially valuable because it was used to the ways of the circus's snake charmer and hung in particularly graceful festoons about her petite form.

"Casey's Troubles."

The opening bill of the Kelcy-Kennedy Company will be "Casey's Troubles," a grand play, original songs, dances, etc. The two comedy stars at the head of this combination need no introduction to the people of Middletown. They have been coming here for years and have always brought the best, but this season they have surpassed their greatest efforts. It will be a great week of entertainment

[illegible] Musical Magnets, who have been in Middletown for some time [illegible] entertained our people with [illegible] music, left to day for [illegible]. They will go from there to [illegible], thence to Binghamton [illegible] to the Thousand Islands, where they have an engagement [illegible] summer.

Ready Mixed Paints, best quality, $1 25 per gallon, at McMonagle & Rogers's drug store.

"Kidnapped."

To be kidnapped means to be carried off and left, maybe, upon a desert island. "Kidnapped," was the title of one of Mr. Robert Louis Stevenson's books, and now he is far away on an island in the Pacific Ocean himself. But it may be he was not exactly kidnapped. If he were kidnapped it was to be left with a charming wife, a comfortable home and no end of society about, both savage and civilized. If you were to land upon that island, after having read "America's Greatest Men and Women," you would recognize him at once, because you would be familiar with his personal appearance. "America's Greatest Men and Women," can be obtained only through the Argus and Mercury. The terms are such that the remarkable work is within the reach of everybody, and at a price which is hardly to be counted. Read all the details in another column.

LIFE'S PAINFUL EXPERIENCES.

Rector Evans's Sermon on the Salutary Discipline of Pain and Grief.

The sermon at Grace Church, yesterday morning, was from the text, "It is expedient for you that I go away," and showed how the painful experiences of life, such as bereavements, sickness or poverty are blessings in disguise. It is often expedient for us that our joys should go away. The man, who in some strange way, escapes the salutary discipline of pain and grief, is more to be pitied than envied, for the bracing tonic of trouble is essential to a strong character. The Carthaginian Queen said that her own acquaintance with trouble had taught her to feel for others who were in trouble, and this, indeed, is the conside ation that should always keep us in our hour of woe, namely, that we are graduating in the noblest school of all, that of sympathy

ONE WRONG BEGETS ANOTHER.

Nellie McGill, the Victim of Bigamist L'Hommedieu, Abandons Her Child in New York and is Arrested.

The New York Press, of yesterday published an account of the arrest of Miss Nellie McGill, in Jersey City, Saturday, on the charge of abandoning her child.

The babe was left by a Mrs. Paterson with Mrs. Woolheater, in Jersey City. The latter is a sister of Miss McGill, and caused her arrest.

Mrs. Woolheater said Miss McGill came to her house in January with a three weeks' old child, but refused to tell who was its father. The babe was afterwards taken to Mrs. Paterson, who later left it on Mrs. Woolheater's hands

Nellie denied that she was the mother of the infant until she was about to be taken to jail, when she admitted that the babe was here, and that its father was Harvey L'Hommedieu, of Middletown.

The history of Miss McGill's marriage to L'Hommedieu and the latter's imprisonment for bigamy is well known to our readers. Up to the time of her meeting with L'Hommedieu Miss McGill always bore a good reputation.

New Division, O. R. C., Instituted at Paterson.

Chief Conductor James D Brazee, of Millard Division, No. 104, O R. C., and Chief Conductor W. Decker, of Division No 52, went to Paterson, yesterday, to assist the Grand Officers in instituting a new division of the Order, to be known as Eureka Division, No. 171. It starts with a membership of eighty-four, the majority of whom are conductors on the Susquehanna and Erie roads.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

The Grip.

An experience with this disease during all its past epidemics, warrants the bold claim that Dr. King's New Discovery will positively cure each and every case if taken in time, and persons the ordinary care to avoid exposure. Another thing has been proven, that those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery, escape the many troublesome after results of this disease. By all means get a bottle. It is guaranteed, and money will be refunded if no good results follow its use. Sold by McMonagle & Rogers.

IN HONOR OF JUDGE BARNARD.

The Testimonial to be Presented by the Dutchess County Bar.

The presentation of the thousand-dollar oil painting of Justice Joseph F. Barnard, of the Supreme Court, which has just been completed by Artist John F. Weir, of Brooklyn, will be made at a special term to be held in Poughkeepsie, on Monday, May 7, by Judge Charles F. Brown, of Newburgh. Judge Brown will be asked to have the proceedings incorporated in the court records. Accompanying the painting, which is to be hung in the large court room, will be the following testimonial, handsomely engrossed, and signed by nearly all the members of the bar of Dutchess county.

The names of eminent judges and of the leaders of the bar of one generation are often forgotten in the next.

We, members of the bar of Dutchess county, desire through this faithful painting, to preserve and have constantly with us, on the scene of his labors, the familiar form and features of the Judge with whom our legal life and labors have been most closely connected for thirty years, and also that it may testify to those who come after us of the high value which we place upon the diligent, faithful, and upright discharge of the duties of the judicial office.

THE MINSTREL EVENT OF THE SEASON

Barlow Brothers' Minstrels at the Casino, Tuesday Evening.

Lovers of unobjectionable amusement and all who enjoy a hearty laugh will have their fondest wishes gratified at the Casino, next Tuesday evening, when the Barlow Brothers' Mammoth Minstrels in an entire new programme, embracing all the salient points of minstrelsy. The wide spread reputation of this company and their long list of celebrated stars, together with their splendid press endorsements from our best journals, are recommends sufficient to satisfy the most exacting. We quote the following from the Philadelphia Daily Press:

"Barlow Brothers' Minstrels are made up of the best talent in the country, is new all through, and has so many commendable points that to mention one seems like slighting the others that were equally as good, and are all deserving of praise. There was not a tame scene nor a tiresome incident in the whole performance. The singers' voices are rich and well trained, they are tastefully arranged, and the succeeding scenes are full of rapid and beautiful surprises, making the Barlow Brothers the event of the season.

A Temperance Meeting. To morrow Night.

Mr. John May, of Scranton, Pa., will speak in the Free Christian Church, to-morrow (Tuesday) night, at 8 o'clock. Mr. May is also a vocalist and will sing some of his songs. He addressed the Temperance Union, Saturday night, and proved to be a very practical and sincere talker, and was much liked by all. The meeting, to-morrow night, will be public and all are cordially invited Seats free.

PINCHED FACES.

PECULIAR TO AMERICAN WOMEN.

Some of the Causes which Appear upon Investigation.

(SUBJECT TO OUR LADY READERS.)

Ask them "What can be the matter?" and the invariable answer is, "I don't know." The eyes droop, and an air of deep gloom seems to overwhelm them. Press your questions a little closer, and you find avoidance of all society, reluctance to make the slightest effort, all accompanied with a crushing sense of bearing down.

THIN PALE WOMEN HAVE YOU THIS

Further investigation discloses irregularity of periods, dizziness and faintness at times, and perhaps leucorrhœa.

Then surely the evidence is all-sufficient.

An American woman has discovered that the cause of all this lies in a deranged and diseased uterus or womb.

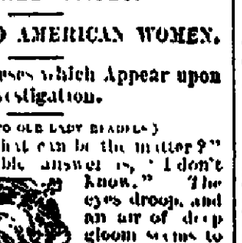
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most marvellous cure for this trouble ever discovered.

A purely vegetable remedy, it is at once an absolutely safe and natural cure for this crushing trouble

It has cured thousands and will cure you as sure as truth is truth

Here is a letter from one of them which she wants us to publish —

"For years I have been almost a constant sufferer from female trouble in all its dreadful forms shooting pains all over my body, sick headache spells, backaches, dizziness, depression and everything that was horrid. I tried many doctors in different parts of the United States, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable compound has done more for me than all the doctors.



MRS. HARRIET WAMPLER

"I feel it my duty to tell you these facts that you also may be cured. My heart is full of gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham." — Mrs. Harriet Wampler, Box 911, Baraboo, Wis.

SHOT IN THE ARM.

A Boy Wounded by the Accidental Discharge of a Pistol.

Harvey Wilson, the eight-year-old son of Officer R. W. Wilson, was shot in the left arm, yesterday, while playing with a small 22-calibre revolver.

He and several other boys had purchased a box of blank cartridges on Saturday, and later had them exchanged for ball cartridges, and, yesterday, the boys went over to Houston's hill to do some shooting.

The pistol was not in good working order, and while showing his companions "how it worked," the weapon was discharged, the ball entering the fleshy part of his left arm. The wound is not likely to cause any serious results.

A POOR PLACE FOR PLAYING TAG

A Boy Injured by Falling from a Freight Car in the Erie Yard.

A gang of young boys have for some time past made a practice of playing tag on and about freight cars in the Erie yard. They have been driven away repeatedly by the yard officials and by policemen, but they always return. Yesterday afternoon, a boy named Craig fell from the top of a freight car, while being pursued by one of his companions, and was quite badly injured. He was able to walk home, assisted by several of his companions, and it is thought that his injuries are not serious. His mishap should act as a warning to boys to abandon this dangerous pastime.

One Way of Stealing a Ride.

Car inspectors in Port Jervis, Saturday morning, found a man comfortably couched on the trucks of the rear Pullman. He begged to be allowed to continue his journey but was compelled to get off. He said he had made the trip from Erie, Pa., on the trucks of different trains

Assignee's Sale

Of the Warburton Cotton Waste and Bleaching Mills at Westbrookville, in the county of Sullivan, New York.

As assignee, for the benefit of creditors, I shall sell on the premises on Wednesday the 2d day of May, 1894, at half past one o'clock in the afternoon

The said mills, which are situated on the Pine Kill, about one mile westerly from the postoffice at Westbrookville, N. Y., one mile from the Westbrookville depot of the Port Jervis and Monticello Railroad and about four miles from the Otisville station on the N. Y., L. E. and W. Railroad, in Orange county, N. Y.

This property consists of about six acres of land, a splendid water power dam, flume, two turbine wheels of about 70 horse power each, engine of about 25 horse power, boiler of about 30 horse power, steam pumps, rotary boiler, shafting, 2 double pickers, 1 willow and 1 kip (new), make willow; 1 English cylinder picker, made by Tatham & Co.; 1 single cylinder lapper, 17 cardiner machines with the clothing, 17 of which are arranged and have all the appurtenances for making cotton batting; 1 baling press, 1 iron washer, 1 hydro extractor, sacks, rope, belting, ropes, pulleys, and also about 50 pounds of raw material, all ready for manufacture. This raw material consists of well selected stock, between 1 and 2 inches and other cotton material for the manufacture of cotton batting.

These mills are now all in running order and may be started up at once everything being on hand necessary to running at full capacity

The real property, which all [illegible] machinery and attachments, will be offered together, or the machines, machinery and personal property will be offered separately, as may be desired by the bidders.

The Warburton Mills are new and have been erected and furnished by William Whittaker, recently from England at large expense. They are now to be sold at public auction, to settle the estate by the undersigned assignee. A portion of the purchase money may remain on the property
